

Two Weeks of Talent from Across Campus

MASS APPEAL 2023

Student Exhibition

To celebrate the 75th Anniversary of OCC, The Doyle is pleased to announce that it will be returning to a non-juried format after several years of juried exhibitions and online presentations during the pandemic.

We look forward to celebrating OCC's artistic talent!

CALL FOR STUDENT ENTRIES

SUBMISSION, SELECTION AND ELIGIBILITY

- Open to all OCC students. One work per student. Someone else may deliver work for you.
- All framed work and paintings must be "ready to hang" with wires, screw eyes, or D-rings, attached ahead of delivery dates (some paintings may be able to hang from stretcher bars). Works on paper must be matted with a rigid support board behind the mat. Indicate TOP of each work on the back of the work. For works with several parts, please provide a diagrams or instructions for how they should be arranged.
- Work with wet paint, in extremely fragile condition, improperly prepared, or containing organic material, or live animals, will not be accepted. Ceiling pieces will not be considered for display.
- For works meant to be viewed on a computer or monitor, such as video documentation of performances, digital videos, animations, and websites, students will need to provide the audio-visual equipment. If the equipment is small, such as a laptop or tablet, then the means for securing it will need to be provided too.
- Limited pedestal availability. For installations and large sculpture, it is suggested that you consult with The Doyle director, Tyler Stallings, prior to submission, tstallings@occ.cccd.edu. For such work, students may be asked to assist with installing and de-installing their own work.
- Artwork is NOT insured. ALL work MUST be collected from the gallery during designated pick-up times. Items left after this period are the property of the gallery and may be discarded.
