2. General Discussion

2.1 ISLO

Anna Hanlon presented on the Institutional Student Learning updates with suggested revisions from the IE committee based on assessment. The Curriculum Committee was asked to review the suggested amendments and accept or reject the changes. After review of the updates, Anna will bring to the Academic Senate for endorsement on 4/11.

Motion to endorse the ISLO revisions and the definition of an ISLO to present to Academic Senate.

Approve/Second: Fred Judd / Lori Cassidy. The motion carried unanimously.

2.2 Articulation update

Manoj Wickremesinghe announced that as of Fall 2022 USC will not be accepting online labs. Lecture online is acceptable. Foreign language classes that are taken online will not be accepted towards the major. The online foreign language course will be accepted as elective units, but this is not why students are taking the courses. Marley Cervantes inquired if this restriction applied to fully online or zoom. Manoj responded that it would apply to any type of synchronous or asynchronous modalities. The CSU and IGETC approvals are still being approved.

2.3 Curriculum Specialist update

Elizabeth Page welcomed Nicole Ichiki. They are currently working on the catalog, image adjustments in the catalog, C-ID course revisions, and the Spanish ADT revisions.
