OBAS	We basically use mathematical methods to analyze business situations. Although we do not have enough mathematical knowledge, we could start with the easier application like basic insurance or banking analysis. We are on the way of exploring connections between math and business, and I believe that it is a good chance to broaden our interests. Also, we do business related projects. For example, there are entrepreneurship activities, such as building our small non profit businesses.	eliannayang@gmail.com	Vu Phan vphan1@ccd.edu	Hybrid (In-Person/Zoom) Every other Friday starting 02/10/2023 9 - 10 AM
