| NAME OF CLUB                 | DESCRIPTION &amp; DETAILS  |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| Black Student Union          | The BSU was established to help bring together Black Student and allies on the OCC campus to foster a sense of community and culture.   |
| Burmese Student Association  | The Burmese Student Association (BSA) at Orange Coast College aims to build a welcoming community for Burmese students and all interested individuals of OCC, celebrate Burmese culture, and provide academic, social, and cultural support to its members. Through events, volunteer work, and collaboration, we strive to promote unity and cultural understanding both on and off campus.                      |
| Computer Science Club        | The computer science club of OCC is dedicated to providing opportunities to students of all backgrounds. The job market at the moment is very tight for computer science majors and we seek to help CS majors become more competitive applicants. Our biweekly programming tournaments, hackathons, and workshops all aid students by boosting their resume's and helping them prepare for joining the workforce. |
| Japanese Student Association | The Japanese Student Association is dedicated to promoting and sharing Japanese culture at OCC. We host a variety of culture and social events for Japanese student, exchange students, and anyone interested in Japanese culture. Join us to experience Japanese cultures, experiences, and connections within our diverse community.  |
| Marine Mammal Research Group | The Marine Mammal Research Group, or MMRG, is focused on learning more about our local marine mammal species and contributing to research projects being conducted along our coast. We hold research surveys studying both bottlenose dolphins and harbor seals, and frequently have guest speakers join our meetings. If you want to learn more about marine mammals, MMRG is the place to be!                   |

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Nutrition Club  | "The nutrition club is a welcoming, supportive community where a healthy lifestyle and overall wellness are valued. We host events on campus, connect with the community, and share ideas on healthy eating habits for a flourishing student life. "  |
| SHPE (Society of Hispanic Engineers)                            | We are a diverse club of STEM majors that are striving to: Create a strong, supportive community on campus. Organize workshops to assist with scholarship applications. Explore internship opportunities and enhance resume-building skills. Network with fellow STEM majors across the district and region. Hold regular meetings for collaboration and growth.  |
| Vietnamese Catholic Student Association of Orange Coast College | Founded in 1998 by the Vietnamese Clergy Committee, Diocese of Orange. VCSA has gathered more than 400 students from local campuses such as Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Long Beach, Santa Ana College, Orange Coast College, and Golden West College. Embracing the mission to shine the Word of Life, VCSA members help each other in carrying out the Catholic faith, studies, and charitable services. The three pillars of the VCSA family are: to live out the Catholic faith, to excel in school, and to embrace charity services. All members know that VCSA depends on its members to carry out these three missions, and to grow. Each member's commitment and devotion decide whether or not VCSA can go on. |
| Volleyball Club   | A student-led club where we host volleyball open gyms open to all students of any skill level. A time and place where everyone can better their skills, just have fun, and make new connections.  |
| Dance Appreciation Club   | Our club's goal is to offer an opportunity for all OCC students to explore various dance styles, whether or not they are enrolled in a dance course. The dance community has become a safe and supportive space for us, and we hope to promote inclusivity and celebrate the diversity within our group. We hope to see you all there!"   |
| Lighthouse Campus Ministry                                      | group and personal Bible studies  |
| Poetry Club   | Safe space for like-minded people to workshop, read, write, and discuss poetry  |
