NAME OF CLUB	DESCRIPTION & DETAILS
Game Dev Club	The OCC Game Development Club is a collaborative space for students interested in creating video games. Members explore game design, programming, art, animation, sound, and storytelling while working together on projects using industry tools like Unity and other game development software. The club welcomes beginners and experienced creators alike, providing opportunities to learn new skills, build portfolio pieces, and collaborate with other students who share a passion for games.
OCC Photography Club	Photography Club is a creative space for students who love documenting special moments and capturing the unique in the normal! We meet biweekly to learn the basics of photography (aperture, ISO, and focal length) while exploring different styles such as street, portrait, landscape, black & white, food, and architecture photography. Members can participate in fun photo competitions at select locations and grow their skills through hands-on practice. No expensive camera required (phones work great, and shared equipment is available). Plus, enjoy free food! Come learn, create, and connect through photography.
Wild Lens Collective	Wild Lens Collective (WLC) is a student organization that brings together science and media to explore wildlife, technology, and environmental storytelling through collaborative projects and creative content.

NAME OF CLUB	DESCRIPTION & DETAILS
Black Student Union	The BSU was established to help bring together Black Student and allies on the OCC campus to foster a sense of community and culture.
Burmese Student Association	The Burmese Student Association (BSA) at Orange Coast College aims to build a welcoming community for Burmese students and all interested individuals of OCC, celebrate Burmese culture, and provide academic, social, and cultural support to its members. Through events, volunteer work, and collaboration, we strive to promote unity and cultural understanding both on and off campus.
Computer Science Club	The computer science club of OCC is dedicated to providing opportunities to students of all backgrounds. The job market at the moment is very tight for computer science majors and we seek to help CS majors become more competitive applicants. Our biweekly programming tournaments, hackathons, and workshops all aid students by boosting their resume's and helping them prepare for joining the workforce.
Japanese Student Association	The Japanese Student Association is dedicated to promoting and sharing Japanese culture at OCC. We host a variety of culture and social events for Japanese student, exchange students, and anyone interested in Japanese culture. Join us to experience Japanese cultures, experiences, and connections within our diverse community.
Marine Mammal Research Group	The Marine Mammal Research Group, or MMRG, is focused on learning more about our local marine mammal species and contributing to research projects being conducted along our coast. We hold research surveys studying both bottlenose dolphins and harbor seals, and frequently have guest speakers join our meetings. If you want to learn more about marine mammals, MMRG is the place to be!
Nutrition Club	"The nutrition club is a welcoming, supportive community where a healthy lifestyle and overall wellness are valued. We host events on campus, connect with the community, and share ideas on healthy eating habits for a flourishing student life. "
SHPE (Society of Hispanic Engineers)	We are a diverse club of STEM majors that are striving to: Create a strong, supportive community on campus. Organize workshops to assist with scholarship applications. Explore internship opportunities and enhance resume-building skills. Network with fellow STEM majors across the district and region. Hold regular meetings for collaboration and growth.
Vietnamese Catholic Student Association of Orange Coast College	Founded in 1998 by the Vietnamese Clergy Committee, Diocese of Orange. VCSA has gathered more than 400 students from local campuses such as Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Long Beach, Santa Ana College, Orange Coast College, and Golden West College. Embracing the mission to shine the Word of Life, VCSA members help each other in carrying out the Catholic faith, studies, and charitable services. The three pillars of the VCSA family are: to live out the Catholic faith, to excel in school, and to embrace charity services. All members know that VCSA depends on its members to carry out these three missions, and to grow. Each member's commitment and devotion decide whether or not VCSA can go on.

Volleyball Club	A student-led club where we host volleyball open gyms open to all students of any skill level. A time and place where everyone can better their skills, just have fun, and make new connections.
Dance Appreciation Club	Our club's goal is to offer an opportunity for all OCC students to explore various dance styles, whether or not they are enrolled in a dance course. The dance community has become a safe and supportive space for us, and we hope to promote inclusivity and celebrate the diversity within our group. We hope to see you all there!"
Poetry Club	Safe space for like-minded people to workshop, read, write, and discuss poetry
All Nations Christian Fellowship	We exist to seek and spread a passion for the glory of Jesus Christ to college students from all nations. We meet on Sundays to go to church together and we also meet during the week for worship and prayer. We also try to do fun things together (ie. hiking, beach bonfires, and trips to Joshua Tree, Sequoia, Yosemite, etc.). Whether you want to grow in your relationship with God or just explore the truth claims of Christianity, ALL our welcome!!
Alliance for College-wide Change Through Equity, Support &amp; Sustainability at Orange Coast College (ACCESS)	ACCESS is a student-led equity alliance dedicated to identifying and addressing systemic disparities across the college. Through collaboration, research, and advocacy, ACCESS empowers students to become informed change agents who advance safety, inclusivity, and sustainability at OCC.
Coast Aeronautic Astronautic Research Lab	"We are an engineering club focused on aerospace systems, but we welcome students from all engineering disciplines. Our projects include building rockets and drones designed to be launched and flown in the desert. Members also have the opportunity to earn a rocketry certification, which not only allows them to purchase higher-powered rocket motors but also serves as proof of their foundational rocketry knowledge to future employers. What You'll Learn Gain an understanding of aerospace regulatory bodies and the rules for operating in the National Airspace System (NAS). Apply concepts from physics and engineering coursework to real-world aerospace design projects. Use simulation software to model and analyze designs. Develop hands-on skills in fabricating aerospace components. Learn the processes behind flight testing, data collection, and system verification in aerospace engineering. Esports at OCC	"Esports at OCC will be a community forward gaming club that will offer something for everyone, casual, competitive, and even non-gamers."
Game Theory Club	The Game Theory Club is a student-led organization dedicated to mastering the art and science of decision-making. We host events and workshops with the aim of helping students develop their strategic thinking, strengthen their cognitive abilities, and apply powerful concepts from game theory to both real life and professional opportunities. Any level of experience or skill is welcome!
Horticulture Club	"The Horticulture Club is a community of plant lovers of all skill levels who are ready to dig in. We are a group of enthusiasts ready to share gardening tips, explore new methods of sustainability, organize hands-on projects, and more. We are focusing on designing and installing a new garden! To join the club, there's no experience necessary, just your love for plants! Follow us on Instagram @hortclubocc E-mail hortclubocc@gmail.com "
OC Vital Signs	At OCVS, we create and share opportunities for our pre-health students to help them succeed on whatever pre-health path they're on, shaping the next generation of healthcare. Whether it be medicine, dentistry, allied health, public health, or anything alike, we aim to connect our students with real-world experiences and opportunities tailored to their individual pathway.
